

Hi everyone! I hope you had a wonderful fourth of July holiday last week! I was always told that after the fourth summer is over. This sounds crazy but, in some ways, it seems to be true – August and the start of the school year comes very quickly from here!

I am very excited this week for Vacation Bible School. Please pray for our kids this week!

For this Sunday, when I looked at the Scripture readings I was immediately drawn to the second reading from Paul to the Corinthians. This particular passage brings back memories of praying with this Scripture text in the past. I find it relatable to life situations and helpful in how to approach difficult situations. St. Paul talks about this “thorn in the flesh” experience. We do not know exactly what this issue is that St. Paul is having. It might be a physical, mental or spiritual pain. Maybe he has some sort of illness that will not go away. It is hard to say exactly what he is talking about but the bottom line is that St. Paul is having trouble with something in his life and asks Jesus to remove it from his life. Of course, we can all relate to this – every one of us! We all have a “thorn in the flesh” experience. Sometimes it is a personal health issue, or a family burden, or we are worried about something. Every one of us can identify with St. Paul here.

Like St. Paul we too rightly ask God to help us with this or even to take it away. As we hear in the 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 reading, Paul asks Jesus to remove this thorn in the flesh and Jesus responds, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” How many of us have asked God to remove certain trials in our life and not received that request? Neither did Paul. But as he prayed with this and heard Jesus speak to him here, God showed him a totally different way to see this trial in his life. He was supposed to not just have it removed but to invite Jesus into the trial and find the Lord’s strength in the trial. As the Lord says, His grace will be sufficient to help Paul work through it. Perhaps this is similar to what God is doing in our lives too?

Lastly, St. Paul proclaims something revolutionary, “I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.” After praying with this and not getting what he wanted Paul is now able to approach this trial in a totally different way. He is meant to journey in this trial with Christ, and to allow His grace to work in it. In other words, he learns to meet Jesus in the trial and discovers that paradoxically he is stronger in his weakness than in his strength because of God’s grace. Perhaps in the trials that God does not remove in our lives we are meant to experience something similar? Try taking your own “thorn in the flesh” experience and doing as St. Paul did. Use this reading to assist you in your prayer with this area of your life.

Have a very blessed week!

Fr. James

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading: Ezekiel 2: 2-5

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD! And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 123: 1-2a, 2bcd, 3-4 Music: Tony Alonso

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, plead - ing for his mer - cy, our eyes are fixed on the Lord.

1. To you have I lifted up my eyes,
you who dwell in the heavens.
Behold like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords.
2. Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of her mistress, so our eyes are on the LORD our God,
till he show us his mercy.
3. Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy.
We are filled with contempt.
Indeed, all too full is our soul with the scorn of the arrogant, the disdain of the proud.

* 2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 12: 7-10

Brothers and sisters: That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Verse

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor.
(cf. Luke 4:18)

* Gospel Mark 6: 1-6a

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

* Homily: Reflection on The Word

* Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven, (At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man,” all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OF NAZARETH

Today we welcome Sister Luke Boiarsk and Sister Marian Stenken of The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, Kentucky, who will speak at all the Masses on behalf of their ministries in Belize, India, Nepal, Botswana, Kenya, and the home missions of the United States.

Our prayers, encouragement, and the collection that will be taken up, align our parish in a very particular way with the work of their Sisters in mission. Let us be as generous as we can.
