

Bulletin announcement:

Talk on the “Sacrament of Mercy”: Our Lady of Guadalupe proudly presents Mike Aquilina’s presentation: “The Sacrament of Mercy: Lessons on Confession for Today from the Early Church.”

Join us on Monday, March 6 from 7:15-9:00 PM (in the church following 6:30 Mass). We will explore the origins of the Sacrament of Reconciliation (or Confession) with a renowned expert of the early Church who will then apply what we know of this ancient practice to our experience today. This is an excellent way to begin Lent and prepare for Easter.

There will be a question and answer period toward the end of our time together. Also, there will be an opportunity to purchase signed copies of many of Mike’s books, including Seven Revolutions: How Christianity Changed the World and Can Change It Again along with a number of his other titles, before and after Mike’s presentations.

Mike Aquilina is executive vice-president of the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. He is author or editor of more than forty books and an EWTN personality.
