Hi everyone! I hope you enjoyed a nice longer weekend last weekend! We are starting to feel the beginning of cooler weather which in my opinion is nice but also reminds me that I am not ready for the cold yet either!

This weekend we are once again put before a challenging Gospel from Luke. We have had some “heavy-hitters” these past weeks and this week is no different. When you look at Luke’s Gospel as a whole you see both sides. You see Jesus challenging us in strong ways, and you see high mercy too. As we look at these challenging texts please do not forget that we also are given passages of great mercy. For example, Luke’s Gospel is the only Gospel to record the prodigal son parable which we know reveals the incredible mercy of God to the sinner and His constant willingness to receive us back if we are willing to repent. In Luke’s Gospel we also have the 99 and the 1 where Jesus reminds us to leave the 99 to go after the lost sheep and how Heaven rejoices not over 99 righteous but over the 1 sinner who repents.

As we look at this weekend’s Gospel Jesus says to us, “If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple (Luke 14:25-27).”

These words are hard to hear! Please remember Jesus is a master teacher and uses certain literary techniques in his teaching to get our attention and make us think. We know Jesus does not want us to literally hate our father and mother because He also reminds His followers, like the rich young man, to follow the commandments and one of the most important commandments is to “honor thy father and mother.” We also know that the Jewish people put the family in a very high place so this would have been extra hard to hear.

In this situation Jesus is using hyperbole to make His point. His point to us is that we need to put Him before all else in our lives and yes even before our family. God must have first place in our lives without exception. Jesus is boldly demanding this to be His follower. So, we should ask ourselves, “does Jesus come before everything else in my life?” If I do not make time to pray at Mass each weekend, and have a regular prayer life then I would really begin to question my priorities. Yes, Jesus must come even before sports games, and practices. He must come before family celebrations, and our busy schedules. We want to make the time to embrace the Lord daily and weekly at Mass, and then with Him go about our lives and activities. This will prevent us from idolizing something in our lives that is meant to be with us but not to consume us. Please give an honest assessment of your life and ask this question, “Does Jesus come before all else? And “does the way I live my life actually testify to this?”

The second part of His statement is challenging too. Jesus says that we must take up our cross and follow Him. This is easier said than done. Some of us have some heavy crosses in our life.

Remember that God never makes us do anything on our own. He always wants to share in our crosses with us and show us how to work through them. Our daily cross is a place of trust and surrender to His grace to give us the strength we need to navigate them well. This might include difficult relationships, illness, longing hearts, misfortunes of life, job challenges – of course this can mean many things for us. We should never go out of our way to find crosses but for the one's that God does not remove, we have to learn to embrace, pray through, and allow Jesus to meet us in these crosses. After all – He conquered the cross, not us! So, let Him help you conquer your cross.

Have a very blessed week and let's put God first!

The Liturgy of The Word

1st Reading Wisdom 9: 13-18b
Who can know God's counsel, or who can conceive what the LORD intends? For the deliberations of mortals are timid, and unsure are our plans. For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns. And scarce do we guess the things on earth, and what is within our grasp we find with difficulty; but when things are in heaven, who can search them out? Or who ever knew your counsel, except you had given wisdom and sent your holy spirit from on high? And thus were the paths of those on earth made straight.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Response Psalm 90: 3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14, 17
Music: Anthony Ruff, OSB

1. You turn man back to dust,
and say, "Return, O children of men."
To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday,
come and gone, or like a watch of the night.
2. You sweep them away like a dream,
like grass which is fresh in the morning.
In the morning it sprouts and is fresh;
by evening it withers and fades.
3. Then teach us to number our days,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Turn back, O LORD! How long?
Show pity to your servants.
4. At dawn, fill us with your merciful love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favor of the LORD our God be upon us;
give success to the work of your hands.
O give success to the work of your hands.
Prosper the work of our hands!

2nd Reading Philemon 9-10, 12-17

I, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner for Christ Jesus, urge you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment; I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I should have liked to retain him for myself, so that he might serve me on your behalf in my imprisonment for the gospel, but I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that the good you do might not be forced but voluntary. Perhaps this is why he was away from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a brother, beloved especially to me, but even more so to you, as a man and in the Lord. So if you regard me as a partner, welcome him as you would me.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (Psalm 119: 135)

Let your face shine upon your servant;
and teach me your laws.

Gospel Luke 14: 25-33

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, 'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.' Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops? But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Join Our Lady of Guadalupe "Young at Heart Seniors" On a Trip to See the Show "A Branson Country Christmas" Thursday, November 13, 2025

This morning we head to the American-Croatian Center in Eastlake where we will first enjoy a luncheon served family-style. The menu consists of breaded pork chops, scalloped potatoes, green beans, salad, bread and butter, beverage, and dessert.

Then we will be entertained with music and comedy featuring the Ozark Jubilee and one of Branson's funniest comedians and world-class fiddler, Randy Newman, aka Doofus Doolittle. Doofus will have you rolling in the aisle with his unique style of "Hillbilly Humor".

You can expect some of the best fiddle music anywhere, and the Ozark Jubilee Band consists of some of the best musicians and singers in the business today. They have their own show in Branson, but in November they go on-tour. So, if you ever wondered what a Branson show sounds like, this is your opportunity.

We depart from OLG parking lot at 11:00 AM, and we will return about 4:15 PM. The payment is due by Monday, October 13th, and your payment is non-refundable AFTER Monday, October 20th unless your seat can be re-sold. (We need a minimum of 30 riders for this trip).

Cost of the trip is $99 per person. Make check payable to "Paskey Tours"

1. For Reservations, call Roger Freibott at 330-467-3652
2. Bring your check to Jackie at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church office.
