Hi everyone! This weekend is called Catechetical Sunday and the priest will give a blessing for the catechists at our parish. A catechist is someone who is trained to teach our faith and offer sound catechesis on Jesus and the Church. We thank these catechists for giving of their time to help instruct our people! And for the rest of us, please remember each of us is called to teach the faith in some way even if not at the parish. Parents – please remember you are the first catechists for your children and the way you teach, pray, and live your faith in the home is the first place of learning and instruction for your children!

In this weekend's Gospel Jesus teaches us, "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." I find this to be very helpful advice in our daily lives, and in growing in the spiritual life. Perhaps it can be easy to dismiss the small matters of each day as unimportant or we could go the other way and over-think every small matter and become scrupulous thinking God is out to get us around every corner. Both of these approaches would be unhelpful. But in a healthy way to pay attention to how we deal with small matters is important and can make all the difference as we conquer larger matters.

I remember working at Panera Bread when I was in high school and often was stationed on the cooking line to make sandwiches, soups, and salads. At that time, we would get really crowded on a regular basis and so I had to work hard to keep up with the long lines, and the amount of orders that were continuously rolling through. In order to keep the station functioning well and most efficiently as possible, it was more about doing the little things right rather than how fast you could make a sandwich, soup or salad. For example, getting to work on time before the crowd came and doing preps was essential to working efficiently later when it was busy. We would spend the first hour or two prepping the sandwich line especially by pre-making the paninis and keeping them in the warmer. If the preps were not done then we would have to make every sandwich on the spot rather than drawing from some pre-made ones. Next, keeping the station somewhat clean and organized was important even in the midst of the busy time. If not, then the sauces and crumbs could begin to fall into the containers of the good food, make a mess, and cause more work by having to empty the container out (while wasting food) and re-fill it. Lastly, learning to work well with co-workers was essential to being efficient. We each had to assume our role and stay focused on that particular role and so work as a team. Each of these smaller things done well would allow us to accomplish our goal of serving the customers well especially when we were busy.

Our life with Christ and our growth in knowing Him and following Him is similar. Remaining faithful to a daily devotion and some regular time with God each day is a relatively small commitment but can make all the difference in the long-run. If we have no intentional time with God there really is no room for growth in the spiritual life and discerning how God is calling us forward each day.

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading Amos 8: 4-7

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land! "When will the new moon be over," you ask, "that we may sell our grain, and the sabbath, that we may display the wheat? We will diminish the ephah, add to the shekel, and fix our scales for cheating! We will buy the lowly for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; even the refuse of the wheat we will sell!" The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Never will I forget a thing they have done!

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Response Psalm 113: 1-2, 4-6, 7-8 Music: Tony Alonso

1. Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD!
May the name of the LORD
be blest both now and forevermore!
2. High above all nations is the LORD,
above the heavens his glory.
Who is like the LORD, our God, who dwells on high,
who lowers himself to look down
upon heaven and earth?
3. From the dust he lifts up the lowly,
from the ash heap he raises the poor,
to set them in the company of princes,
yes, with princes of his people.

*2nd Reading 1 Timothy 2: 1-8

Beloved: First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all. This was the testimony at the proper time. For this I was appointed preacher and apostle — I am speaking the truth, I am not lying —, teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (cf. 2 Corinthians 8:9)

Though our Lord Jesus Christ was rich, he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

*Gospel Luke 16: 1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Also, it could be easy to cut corners in the moral life and think it doesn't really matter. Perhaps you are married and you begin to talk with a person of the opposite sex more deeply. And then you continue to go deeper into the conversations and then begin texting regularly, and then talking regularly on the phone. Then you are finding excuses to leave the house to go catch up with this person. The path to emotional and/or physical infidelity usually starts by being faithful in the small matters and keeping it well-managed on that level and if not then it can quickly grow into something it never should be.

I believe this is also true with our finances. It might be easy to justify cheating the system in small matters, but that habit grows overtime and we could end up trying to justify it if we do not manage the small matters well. The same could be true of becoming careless with a credit card. If we do not manage our spending well in small matters then we could easily overtime slip into a really bad situation of credit card debt that we cannot pay back!

What are the small, daily tasks in your life that God is asking you to do well? Do you make some time for God every day? Do you commit to living morally well in small matters or have you been in the habit of cutting corners?

The ALTARED Youth Group is sponsoring a DIAPER DRIVE to benefit area Pregnancy Care Centers the weekend of Oct. 4 & 5. This coincides with Priesthood Sunday is September 28th and seeks to reaffirm the priesthood of Jesus Christ and its central place in the life of the Church. This day also specifically honors priests, without whom the Holy Sacraments could not be conferred, for a single day out of the 365 days of the year during which they tirelessly serve their parishes. Celebrate and thank Fr. James, Fr. Pat & Fr. Jeffrey for all that they do!
