Hi everyone! I am very grateful to Matt Griffith and all of the volunteers who helped at the Trunk-or-Treat last Saturday! We really had an excellent turnout which was wonderful to see. One of our main goals as a parish is to engage those who have fallen away from the faith and begin to bring them to Christ. If you looked around the parking lot last Saturday most of the people were people we do not see on a regular basis and so this is a true victory that we can begin to engage them. It was also really nice to see the participation and service from our youth group serving lunch, and the Knights of Columbus helping to cook and other people who gave so generously of their time. Again this is an image of a missionary parish where the already faithful our serving those on the fringe when it comes to their faith journey and providing an opportunity for them to be open once again to Our Lady of Guadalupe parish!

This weekend we celebrate All Saints Day on November 1st and All Souls Day on November 2nd. As we enter into November these feast days remind us of our communion with those who have gone before us to the Lord. As Catholics we look to communion with God and one another as essential to Christian living and proclamation. We enter into communion with Christ through prayer, Sacraments, and serving Him. We enter into relationship with each other through our parish community, our families, and other friends of faith and we walk together in following Christ while encouraging each other and when necessary, holding each other accountable.

When a loved one or someone of our Church dies we do not believe that our friendship with them ceases. Certainly, it takes on a different tone since we do not have their physical presence, but going to be with God does not separate us from one another! If anything, it has the power to draw us closer since God is the one who ultimately brings us together! Because of this we look to the Saints (those who are united with God in Heaven) to pray for us and still accompany us on our journey. In a sense, they do this in a more perfect way now that they are fully united with God's will. Who are the Saints you call upon to pray for you and help you?

As I have transitioned into different phases of my journey with Christ different Saints have come into my life to be an example and a friend in my walk of faith. St. Padre Pio was of tremendous value to me in discerning the priesthood. I saw in St. Pio someone who totally gave his life to Jesus and I found this very inspiring. St. Therese of Lisieux would become a great friend of mine through seminary. I often ask her for help and am reminded of the importance of her "little way." St. Ignatius became a great friend especially on retreats since he is a master of designing retreats and his spiritual exercises are very helpful as we navigate the spiritual life. St. John Paul II's presence, ministry, and teachings especially Theology of the Body have totally changed my life and so he is also someone I turn to frequently. More recently, St. Carlos Acutis has joined in for me and for this parish and school to help us grow in faith as a community.

*1st Reading Wisdom 3: 1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

2. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil;
for you are at my side with your rod and your staff
that give me courage.

3. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

4. Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

*2nd Reading

Romans 5: 5-11

Brothers and sisters: Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

John 6: 37-40

Jesus said to the crowds: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."

He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on

What a wonderful Trunk or Treat event we had last weekend! For those of you who weren't able to come, here is a look at the event by the numbers- We had 35 wonderfully decorated trunks, gave out candy to over 250 costumed children, and served up 425 hot dogs to families, and launched 500 apples from our apple launcher! It was awesome to see all the smiles and hear all the laughs throughout the afternoon. We saw many of our OLG families and also families from other churches and our community.

Thank you to all of our parishioners that decorated their trunks and participated in this event! Also, thank you to the members of the Knights of Columbus who grilled all those hot dogs! Thanks to the adult and teen volunteers that came to help run the games and serve the food. And a special thanks to the ones that came early to help set up and those who stuck around afterward to help clean up! The day would not have been such a success without all of those mentioned above, as OLG is blessed with such a selfless community of volunteers!

One Minute With God

Nothing is outside God's jurisdiction.

There are so many more but these are just a few. Again, who are the Saints you look to in your life? Call upon them and read the stories of their lives – this is a great way to grow closer to Christ.

Many who have died and gone before us need further purification before entering God's Kingdom in Heaven. Purification is something that happens on earth but if not completed needs to happen before we can be fully one with God. If I look at my life now versus ten years ago there has been a great deal of cleansing and purifying in my heart that has allowed me to be closer to God and follow Him more clearly. Often purification happens through suffering, and in suffering we call upon the Lord in a different way. Our pride reduces since we are going through a challenging time, and our dependence on God increases. We learn from these times and go forward differently when we come out of the suffering. God also helps us to change our lives and see things more and more from His perspective. We learn to turn away from sin and turn more and more to Christ. We learn to let go of bad habits and find greater freedom in our hearts to choose what is truly good for us. This is something we all go through and need to go through before we are fully one with God (which is Heaven).

We help each other in all walks of life and through purification. We accompany suffering people, pray for them and assist them in ways we are able. This continues in Purgatory (which is the place of this final cleansing) and so the Church asks us to pray for the dead and we assist them with our prayers. Especially in this month of November please remember to pray for the souls in Purgatory, and offer small sacrifices for them.
