Hi everyone! I hope you had a great Feast of All Saints and All Souls day from last weekend! These feast days bring us into the month of November and keep our minds and hearts fixed on eternity. As Christians this is always a reality we reflect upon, but specifically in November as the Church year draws to a close in a few weeks the Church invites us to especially reflect upon the end of our lives and really ask ourselves the question – am I ready? It is true that we will never be perfect in this life but most importantly – have I really embraced a friendship with God in my life and is this a real priority in my life? Do I strive to be a Saint or are all my efforts devoted to something that will pass away at my death? This month is a time to re-focus our hearts on the reality of death but with confidence and faith in Jesus, and making sure that we are keeping our relationship with Christ at the center of our lives before all else!

This weekend we will be doing an increase offertory campaign. I have been working on this with Finance Council and staff for the past several months. Deacon Dave and I will be speaking at all the Masses to update you on our parish finances and ask for continued help in supporting our parish.

As a parish, we desire to equip ourselves appropriately to continue our mission which is to bring people to Jesus. We want to continue to grow in reaching out to the fallen away Catholics or those who have never been baptized and re-engage them. This happens on a variety of levels. On a first level, an event like our Trunk-or-Treat a few weeks back and our Parish picnic are a wonderful way to begin to engage people. These events have a way of attracting people we are trying to engage and we are able to meet them on their level. These events allow an opportunity for trust and relationships to get established. Then we need efforts to take them deeper in faith. This spring we are intending to organize several retreats to help us accomplish this goal of bringing people deeper in relationship with Christ and giving them a chance to have an encounter with Him. I look forward to continuing these efforts at Our Lady of Guadalupe to reach people in our city and neighborhoods that have either fallen away or do not yet know Christ. I hope in the future years to further these efforts of helping people grow in relationship with Jesus and be intentional about serving Him.

As a parish, we are in need of our weekend offertory to increase. We want to be able to support our mission of Liturgy, Evangelization and Service as a parish community. We also need to have an increase of funds to support the daily operation cost of our parish. We are not in crisis but we do need to address this now and get ourselves set up well to drive forward as a parish. Again, Deacon Dave and I will be speaking on this topic this weekend at each Mass and there will be a mailing to all of our parishioners. Please consider helping us as you are able and come to Mass to pray and hear more this weekend. It is extremely important that we work together as a parish community to meet the needs of our parish in the categories of time, talent, and treasure.

I am very grateful to each of you for your commitment to Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish!

The Liturgy of The Word

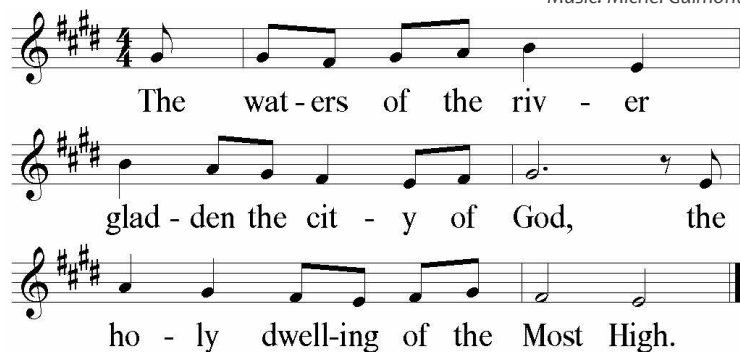

*1st Reading Ezekiel 47: 1-2, 8-9, 12

The angel brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water flowing out from beneath the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the façade of the temple was toward the east; the water flowed down from the southern side of the temple, south of the altar. He led me outside by the north gate, and around to the outer gate facing the east, where I saw water trickling from the southern side. He said to me, "This water flows into the eastern district down upon the Arabah, and empties into the sea, the salt waters, which it makes fresh. Wherever the river flows, every sort of living creature that can multiply shall live, and there shall be abundant fish, for wherever this water comes the sea shall be made fresh. Along both banks of the river, fruit trees of every kind shall grow; their leaves shall not fade, nor their fruit fail. Every month they shall bear fresh fruit, for they shall be watered by the flow from the sanctuary. Their fruit shall serve for food, and their leaves for medicine."

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

1. God is for us a refuge and strength,
an ever-present help in time of distress:
so we shall not fear though the earth should rock,
though the mountains quake to the heart of the sea.
2. The waters of a river give joy to God's city,
the holy place, the dwelling of the Most High.
God is within, it cannot be shaken;
God will help it at the dawning of the day.
3. The LORD of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
Come and behold the works of the LORD,
the awesome deeds he has done on the earth.

*2nd Reading 1 Corinthians 3: 9c-11, 16-17

Brothers and sisters: You are God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building upon it. But each one must be careful how he builds upon it, for no one can lay a foundation other than the one that is there, namely, Jesus Christ. Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (2 Chronicles 7: 16)

*I have chosen and consecrated this house, says the Lord,
that my name may be there forever.*

*Gospel John 2: 13-22

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money-changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his Body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Knights of Columbus will be hosting a seminar on Catholic Investments for Catholic families on Thursday, November 13th at Ss. Cosmas & Damian in Twinsburg at 7:00 PM. This event will be taking place in the multimedia room. Catholic Investors often face a common dilemma of choosing between investment growth and their moral values. We believe investment growth shouldn't be at the cost of your Catholic beliefs. This seminar will introduce you to the Knights of Columbus Asset Advisors. We will go through our faith-based investment approach and how it aligns with Catholic values and financial goals. This event is open to all, membership not required.
