

Hi everyone! I want to thank you for your support and help in giving to our increase offertory campaign. Every little amount truly makes a difference and is greatly appreciated. If you intend on giving more to our weekly offertory and have not had the chance to fill out a pledge card please do so and turn it into the parish office or place it in the basket at the offertory. Again, I am incredibly grateful for your prayerful consideration of helping our parish in this way! If you are not able to help us by giving more then please offer your prayers and support in other ways – thank you!

Also, WeGiveCatholic is right around the corner on Tuesday, December 2nd. For the past several years this fundraising opportunity has gone to support our youth ministry. This year it will continue to support our youth ministry program under Matt Griffith, and also help us with some basic renovations for our PSR classrooms. This would include going towards carpet, paint, furniture etc. If you are able to make a one-time donation to support these efforts then stay tuned for this opportunity on Tuesday, December 2nd.

I hope and pray you have a very blessed Thanksgiving this week! We will have Mass at 9am Thanksgiving morning if you would like to start the day with prayer and gratitude to God for all we have been given. Also, St. Barnabas will have Mass at 7am if you prefer an earlier Mass time please feel free to go there to pray and give thanks if that works best for you.

We remember that the whole Christian life revolves around gratitude. We humbly remember that all we have is ultimately from God – the gift of our lives and the gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ. Our initial posture before the Lord is always to give thanks since He owes us nothing and yet has given us everything in Jesus. Please take a few moments this week to reflect and pray with gratitude in your life and bring this to the Lord on Thanksgiving Day. What things in your life have you been taking for granted?

This weekend we celebrate the final weekend of the church year which is the Solemnity of Christ the King! When we think of an earthly king our mind probably goes right to someone who sits on a throne and is served the best foods, wines, and lives in a palace. We think of someone who governs a nation but also is treated with great honor. When we look to our God and King in Jesus, our Gospel this weekend shows us something different. Luke chapter 23 has Jesus our King not in a royal palace governing but on the cross hanging next to two thieves. Yes, our King shows us the path to true greatness which is not just in giving orders from a safe place of power but rather pouring out His own blood for His people. Jesus is not even dying an honorable death but even taking the place of criminals and sinners. Yes, our King reveals to us the heights of love, which is to give our lives not only for the just but the unjust. In a certain way that is each one of us when we have fallen into sin and need our King to help us. We know from this weekend that He has helped us and taken the place of our sin.

Mass of The Resurrection

Randall DeBruyn

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace, peace to peo-ple of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a - dore you, we glo-ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, heav-en-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa - ther.
Lord Je - sus Christ, On - ly be-got - ten
Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa - ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us;
you take a-way the sins of the world, re - ceive our prayer; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us. For you a-lone are the Ho - ly One, you a - lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spir-it, in the glo - ry, the glo-ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men. A - men.

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading 2 Samuel 5: 1-3

In those days, all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said: "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. In days past, when Saul was our king, it was you who led the Israelites out and brought them back. And the LORD said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel.'" When all the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the LORD, and they anointed him king of Israel.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Response Psalm 122: 1-2, 3-4ab, 4cd-5 Music: Francesca LaRosa

1. I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD."
And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem.
2. Jerusalem, built as a city with compact unity.
To it the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD.
3. According to the decree for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
In it are set up judgment seats, seats for the house of David.

*2nd Reading Colossians 1: 12-20

Brothers and sisters: Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (Mark 11: 9, 10)

*Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!*

*Gospel Luke 23: 35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

*Homily Reflection on God's word

*Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation,
He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Which thief will we be like – the one who turns to Jesus and repents or the one who stays hardened? Advent is approaching next weekend which is the perfect time to take the journey of turning back to Christ, making time for Him, and truly preparing for the gift of His birth at Christmas. On this Feast of Christ the King please prayerfully consider how you will prepare yourself this Advent. We will have resources available and opportunities for prayer and reconciliation. Please take seriously the journey of the holy season of Advent in preparation for the coming of our great King this Christmas!

Giving Thanks

On Thanksgiving Day, OLG's Mass will be celebrated at 9AM. As we've done in the past, we will collect nonperishable food, as well as paper products for the OLG Ministry For Those in Need; the ministry will then use these items when assembling their Christmas baskets. Keep these items with you in the pew as you come to Mass on Thanksgiving morning. At the Offertory time, you'll be invited to bring your donations forward and set them on the sanctuary steps. (After Mass, your help in carrying the donations to the pantry would be most appreciated.)

The GIVING Tree

On November 29-30, the Ministry For Those In Need Advent Giving Tree will be bursting with festive ornaments to request holiday gifts for the following groups: Hattie Larlham, Womankind, Hope and Healing Resource Center, Our Lady of the Wayside and Local Families. Please take an ornament and return a wrapped gift with its related tag by December 14, the ornament is yours to keep. If you do not wish to take an ornament after mass, ornaments will also be available during the week when the church is open until they are all gone. Thank you for sharing the joy of this sacred season!

Everyone is invited to join us after Mass for a fiesta featuring food, a guest speaker, and activities. Kindly RSVP by December 10th to help us plan our menu accordingly.

Right to Life of Northeast Ohio

Join Right to Life of Northeast Ohio for our Christmas Open House on Thursday, December 11 from 4:00-7:00 PM at 300 N Cleveland Massillon Rd in Akron. Join us for food and fellowship! This event is FREE, but please register. To register visit www.RTLofNEO.com or call our office at 234-334-0088.
