The Liturgy of The Word

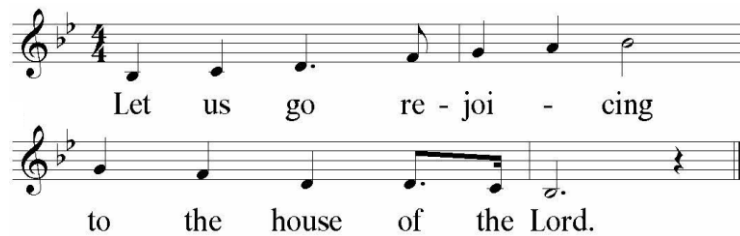

* 1st Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and say: "Come, let us climb the LORD's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths." For from Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and impose terms on many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; one nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

 Response: Psalm 122: 1-2, 3-4ab, 4cd-5
Music: Francesca LaRosa

1. I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD."
And now we have set foot
within your gates, O Jerusalem.
2. Jerusalem, built as a city with compact unity.
To it the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD.
3. According to the decree for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
In it are set up judgment seats,
seats for the house of David.
4. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
May those who love you prosper!
May peace be within your walls,
prosperity in your buildings.
5. Because of my brothers and friends
I will say, "Peace be within you!"
Because of the house of the LORD, our God,
I will pray for your good.

 2nd Reading: Romans 13: 11-14

Brothers and sisters: You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed; the night is advanced, the day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves properly as in the day, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and lust, not in rivalry and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

 Gospel Acclamation and Verse Music: Andrew Wright

Music © 1999, Andrew Wright. Published by OCP. • All rights reserved. • Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-727738.

Verse: (Ps. 85: 8)

Show us Lord, your love; and grant us your salvation.

 Gospel: Matthew 24: 37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken, and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left. Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

 Homily: Reflection on the Word

 Profession of Faith The Apostle's Creed

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

1. O LORD, you have favored your land,
and brought back the captives of Jacob.
You forgave the guilt of your people,
and covered all their sins. You averted all your rage;
and turned back the heat of your anger.
2. Bring us back, O God our Savior!
Put an end to your grievance against us.
Will you be angry with us forever?
Will your anger last from age to age?
3. Will you not restore again our life,
that your people may rejoice in you?
Show us, O LORD, your mercy,
and grant us your salvation.
4. I will hear what the LORD God speaks;
he speaks of peace for his people and his faithful,
and those who turn their hearts to him.
5. His salvation is near for those who fear him,
and his glory will dwell in our land.
6. Mercy and faithfulness have met;
justice and peace have kissed.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.
7. Also the LORD will bestow his bounty,
and our earth shall yield its increase.
Righteousness will march before him,
and guide his steps on the way.
8. Praise the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, both now and forever, the God who is, who was,
and is to come at the end of the ages.

Hi everyone! I hope you had a very blessed Thanksgiving Day! It is so hard to believe but this weekend begins the start of the new liturgical year with the Advent season! This Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent, we will publicly welcome our OCIA members with the Rite of Acceptance. We have been doing some preparation with them for the past several months (called the period of evangelization and pre-catechumenate) and now will begin the next step of preparation called the period of the catechumenate which is a period of continued study and spiritual growth. The unbaptized members now become catechumens and make a public declaration to the community that they desire to follow Christ. The already-baptized members become candidates and publicly declare they intend to come into full communion with the Catholic Church. As the Church community, we are called to embrace these catechumens and candidates, pray for them on their journey, and express our welcome and support of them especially in this time. As the Body of Christ, we are not disjointed members but we are one in the Lord as His Church, and called to support these new members who are seeking to come into full communion with the Catholic Church.

Advent is here! This is a very beautiful season of preparation for God's coming into our world and into our lives and is so easy to let it slide right by. Of course, much of this is brought upon us by our current culture this time of the year. I say this every year – I truly, truly enjoy the festivities of this time with lights, cookies, festive songs, hot chocolate, Christmas ale, etc. There is something enjoyable about these things but we must not let them hijack the Advent season and it is too easy for this to happen. We must always go back to the original meaning of this time of the year which is Christ's birth. This is incredible news! God has chosen not just to lead a plan of salvation through Israel, but to come down from Heaven himself! This is an amazing gift that the Lord would want to be that much a part of His creation, our lives, and so directly participate in our humanity. This reveals so much of what God really thinks of us and we don't want to miss this!

On our end, it is crucial that we are receptive to what God is offering. He is revealing that He wants to pour Himself into our lives and immerse Himself even more into our daily journey. Will we let Him? Do we realize our need for this?

Advent is the opportunity to come to realize our need for God. As human beings, we need pauses in our year to regroup and come in touch with the most important things in our lives. Often, the most important things get neglected for superficial things. The world throws so much at us with busy schedules and this constant need to prove ourselves through our careers, sports, our living situation, etc. that we focus too much of our attention here and begin to cut God out, perhaps our families begin to take a backseat and we enter the chaos that doesn't really lead us anywhere.

Again, Advent is a time to regroup, and re-center on what really matters.

This, of course, begins with making time for God, slowing things down, taking time to pray, reflect, read the Bible, have a daily devotional, and let that love we begin to experience overflow into people in need.

I am not asking you to completely reject all of the cultural festivities this season. But will it hijack your Advent? Will it prevent you from what is most important? Will it steal the real meaning of this time of the year? As Christians, we need to be the ones to turn the tide back away from the cultural meaning and refocus this season on Christ. This will only happen if we are willing to do it ourselves.

Please pick up one of the daily devotionals and use it this Advent. I encourage you to make a plan for this Advent season that will honor the dignity of the season. Make it something you can accomplish and that will challenge you even in small ways. Make a few commitments like coming to Sunday Mass each Sunday, and take the ten minutes for a daily devotional. You could even use the Hallow App if that's easiest for you. Also, try to be attentive each day to how you can do something for someone else that is a little inconvenient perhaps. Perhaps work on reconciling a relationship that has been broken if that is appropriate. And make time for Confession to let sin go and really be ready for the graces of Jesus' birth. God wants to come into your life anew – that's what this season is about. Will you make time to be receptive to Him and prepare yourself for Him?

Fr. James

The Magnificat Choir will begin holding rehearsals for this year's Christmas Eve Concert of Carols and Mass on December 24th for anyone who would like to join us for this short commitment! The list of these rehearsals is as follows:

- » Thursday: December 4 @ 6:30 PM
- » Thursday: December 11 @ 6:30 PM
- » Thursday: December 18 @ 6:30 PM
- » Monday, December 22 @ 6:30 PM

All rehearsals will be held in the St. Cecilia Room unless otherwise noted. All voices welcome! Questions/More information? Contact Don at 330.468.2194, ext. 129 or don@olg.cc.

Thank You!

The OLG Ministry for Those in Need thanks everyone for their overwhelming generosity during our recent food pantry collection. Due to your support, we were able to abundantly fill our Thanksgiving baskets with an assortment of foods for Thanksgiving dinner and many other necessary food items and paper products.
