From the Desk of Fr. Jeffrey

This past weekend, we had the great joy of welcoming our new catechumens and candidates as they prepare to receive Sacraments next Easter. Let us continue to pray for those entering the Church next year! I know for me, I find great hope and inspiration in those who choose to come to faith later in life. As a cradle Catholic, I am filled with joy and hope seeing people come to love our Lord. Their stories of faith are inspiring! Dear catechumens and candidates, know you are in our prayers and we are so proud of you!

In addition, we celebrated the new liturgical season as we began Advent. If anyone asked me what my favorite liturgical season is, I would likely respond, "Whichever season we are in right now." But in all honesty, I love Advent. To me, Advent is almost a forgotten liturgical season. There is a real temptation to simply look forward to Christmas and forget the grace that the season of Advent offers us in the present moment. I know that I fall into that trap sometimes!

And so that leads me to ask a question that I preached about last weekend: what consumes you? I know for me, having 3+ hours of screen time on my phone (for non-Church related things) is something that I desire to work on this Advent season. Maybe it is screen time that consumes us. Or cable news. Or social media. Or the busy-ness of December. Or worry about ourselves, our family, and/or our friends.

Whatever might consume us, Advent is an invitation to let ourselves be consumed by the fire of God's love and mercy. We will not bring the amount of time we scrolled on Facebook or Instagram to heaven, nor the amount of time we watched on cable news, nor the amount of screen time. Rather, we will be consumed by God's love for eternity – how are we preparing our hearts for this?

Of course, the things I listed above are not bad things – social media can and should be used in moderation, it is important to follow the news, and screen time can be used to glorify God! However, Advent redirects our focus to God as we wait for His coming – both in Christmas and the Second Coming. Are our hearts ready?

This Advent, I invite you to let your hearts be taken up by the love of God completely. Run to His mercy freely offered to you in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Spend more time in prayer than on social media. Fast from news and go to Adoration or read the Scriptures. Indeed, what consumes our hearts and lives can tell us a lot about ourselves. And it can be an invitation to return to God in all that we do.

So join me in working on screen time. Or whatever consumes you! Know that you are not alone in your journey of faith. By the end of Advent, may the love of God be that which consumes you totally. God bless you all!

God's Peace,

Fr. Jeffrey Lindholm

Upcoming Altar Minister Schedule

All Lectors, Cantors, Altar Servers, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are asked to submit their unavailable dates for the upcoming January-February-March 2026 Schedule. The new schedule will be run on Monday: December 22nd at Noon. Thank you .

Prelude of Carols

A Prelude of Carols will be presented by our Magnificat Choir and Guadalupe Ringers this year on Christmas Eve at 8:30 PM (prior to the 9:00 PM Mass.) Come early to Mass and celebrate our Savior's Birth with this gift of music!

We are always happy to add your loved ones to our prayer list. If you have someone on the list that you know has recovered and is doing better or, unfortunately has passed away, please let us know so we can make the updates. Thank you!

YOUR GIFT MADE A DIFFERENCE

Thanks!

#weGIVECATHOLIC

with the Catholic Community Foundation December 6, 2022

A huge thank-you to all the donors who made our #wegivecatholic fundraiser on Giving Tuesday a tremendous success! Your support is invaluable. With your help, we surpassed our $10,000 goal as we raised almost $12,000. In addition, we finished in first place with the number of donors for a medium-sized parish, which earns an extra $2,000 prize!

Because of your kindness, we can fund essential programs, events, and resources that help guide our youth in their spiritual journeys and foster a strong sense of community through our ALTARED youth ministry program. We will also be able to freshen up our PSR classrooms and make them more functional for the needs of the catechists and students.

On behalf of Father James, the ALTARED youth ministry program, and the PSR students and catechists, we say, Thank You!!

As we honor Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of compassion and protector of all who seek her help, we invite you to share your personal prayer intention.

Whether you are praying for healing, guidance, strength, family, gratitude, or a special need, please feel free to write your intention below. All intentions will be prayerfully offered to Our Lady of Guadalupe, trusting in her loving intercession.

These cards will be collected at the beginning of Mass on December 12th.
