Hi everyone! It is great to see things up and going again after Christmas break! This Sunday is The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord and is our final feast day of the Christmas season. After this Sunday, we will return to Ordinary Time for several weeks before the beginning of Lent in mid-February.

Speaking of The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, it is always a gift to baptize a baby (or adult) and welcome the newly baptized into the life of Christ and the Church. We always hear about growing secularism in our world and so every time someone comes forward and wants to be baptized, it is a reminder that many people are still seeking faith. Really, this will always be the case since God made each of us to seek Him. Think about it – everybody asks the “God question” and takes interest in it whether they are religious, agnostic, or atheist. What I mean is everyone has to grapple with the question, “Does God exist?” I find that fascinating that we will always ask that question because we are meant for God and to seek God.

The many Baptisms we see are not always the result of people who are fully on board with the faith and we know this. There are many people who either get baptized or have their children baptized who are not “fully in” yet when it comes to practicing the faith. But the reality is – they are in some way seeking God for themselves or for their family and this gives us a place to start and work with in the lives of these people. I rejoice in that place to start and pray we can continue to cultivate those seeds and help them grow.

When we read about Jesus’ Baptism, we are once again struck by God’s “humility.” John the Baptist is hesitant to baptize Jesus in Matthew’s Gospel and really insists it be the other way around. John is right – Jesus does not need Baptism, but John does. Jesus is not a sinner and John is. So why does Jesus get baptized? We could also ask – why does the second person of The Trinity become human? Why does He die on the cross? All of these answers draw back to the basic point that God does these things for us. God shows us all through Scripture how much He wants to enter our lives and transform the sinful, broken world. Jesus gets baptized to make holy the waters of Baptism so that Baptism can make us new. Jesus dies on the cross so we can be forgiven.

After Jesus is baptized, we hear of The Holy Spirit descending upon Him and the Father saying, “This is my Beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.” (Matthew 3:13-17) Every time I preach a Baptism or prepare people for Baptism, I like to make it really clear that Baptism is not just a sign that we want to be Christian and follow Jesus or something only symbolic. It is symbolic, but much more, and God gives grace through Baptism. We see this in Jesus’ Baptism as The Trinity is revealed and The Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus. So, in our Baptism, we are beginning a new life in Christ and our lives take a different direction which is to serve God and do His will.

We are reborn in Christ and we become part of His Body, the Church. God the Father claims us as His beloved children and we too receive the gift of The Holy Spirit in our hearts. Baptism is a gift. We do not earn it, but we do prepare for it so we can really allow the graces of the sacrament to be operative in our lives.

As we pray with Jesus’ Baptism this weekend, take the time to remember your own Baptism. I am sure you have a picture somewhere of it if you were an infant. This is the moment God claimed you and you became a Christian. This is the moment you became a son or daughter of God the Father and received The Holy Spirit in your heart! Take time to appreciate this gift and remember your baptismal calling is to follow Jesus!

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading: Isaiah 42: 1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting, not making his voice heard in the street. a bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth; the coastlands will wait for his teaching. I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 29: 1-2, 3ac-4, 3b and 9b-10 Music: Marty Haugen

1. Ascribe to the LORD, you heavenly powers, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name;
bow down before the LORD, majestic in holiness.
2. The voice of the LORD upon the waters,
the LORD on the immensity of the waters;
the voice of the LORD full of power;
the voice of the LORD full of splendor.
3. The God of glory thunders;
in his temple they all cry "Glory!"
The LORD sat enthroned above the flood;
the LORD sits as king, sits as king forever.

* 2nd Reading: Acts 10: 34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying: "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse: (Cf. Mark 9:7)

The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered: "This is my beloved Son, listen to him."

* Gospel: Matthew 3: 13-17

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" Jesus said to him in reply, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,
(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and
His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or via email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

Teen Bible Study

Teens in Grades 7-12 are invited to attend a Bible Study geared specifically for you!! You can bring your own Bible, but we will have Bibles here to use as well.

Date/Time: Sunday, January 18 from 6:00-7:30pm in the Tepeyac Room.

You may have noticed that we have a couple of reserved parking spaces in our OLG parking lot when you arrived last week or this week. There were two parishioners who woke up bright and early (before 7am) to donate to our wegivecatholic fundraiser last month.

For donating before the sun rose to support the youth of OLG, both men were gifted a reserved parking place at the front of our lot for the entire month of January! Thanks for your support, Dave and Bobby! Congrats and enjoy!!

PILLARS OF PARENTING

All OLG parents are invited to attend!
