Hi everyone! It is hard to believe but this Wednesday is Ash Wednesday and Lent begins! Please join us for an Ash Wednesday Mass as we begin Lent together with fasting and prayer. Please take the time to ask the Lord how He wants you to approach this Lent and what He wants you to focus on. There are always so many good practices that can be helpful but having a few things we commit to, follow through on and focus on will be more meaningful and transformative than taking on too much. Place this Lent into God's hands and ask Him where He would like you to draw your focus. I will write more for next weekend about what we are offering this Lent and some practical things we can do to enter in well this upcoming season.

In the Gospel for this weekend we continue to journey through the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel. There is a lot of content from Our Lord in this text but this is the part I will reflect on with you during this article:

"You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raqa,' will be answerable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool,' will be liable to fiery Gehenna. Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

I find these verses very helpful to pray with in my own life. I hear this often from people, "well I haven't killed anybody." And this is said sort of as a joke but also somewhat serious – that the real sin is to murder but anything leading up to that is fine. As we here in Jesus' teaching he takes the commandant "Thou shall not kill" much deeper than just physical killing. Jesus goes back to the source which is anger in one's heart and acting out of anger in speech and in action. Jesus calls us not to act out of anger but to work through the pain, and go reconcile with the one who wronged us.

Anger is something we all experience. Even Jesus felt anger which we see in the cleansing of the Temple. Anger is an emotion and God made us to have emotions. The deeper question is not whether we experience anger or not but rather how do we deal with anger in our lives.

Often, we get angry because we have been hurt by someone. Perhaps we have been betrayed in some sort of way, or maybe we have been misunderstood, perhaps falsely accused, or treated poorly in some way. We experience anger we are cut-off by a car on the road. Or when someone does not take the time to listen to a struggle we are having. But what do we do with it? How easy it is to turn the anger into road rage and to cuss and swear at someone. It is easy also easy to hold the anger inside and pretend it is not there. From this comes resentment and perhaps even passive aggressive behavior.

Jesus wants our hearts to heal and us to work through anger.

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading Sirach 15: 15-20

If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him. Immense is the wisdom of the Lord; he is mighty in power, and all-seeing. The eyes of God are on those who fear him; he understands man's every deed. No one does he command to act unjustly, to none does he give license to sin.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 119: 1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34

Music: Tony Alonso

Bless-ed are they who fol-low the law of the Lord! Bless-ed are they who fol - low the law of the Lord!

1. Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD.

Blessed are those who keep his decrees!
With all their hearts they seek him.

2. You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept.

May my ways be firm in keeping your statutes,
firm in keeping your statutes.

3. Deal bountifully with your servant,
that I may live and keep your word.

Open my eyes, that I may see the wonders of your law.

4. LORD, teach me the way of your statutes,
and I will keep them to the end.

Grant me insight that I may keep your law,
and observe it wholeheartedly.

* 2nd Reading 1 Corinthians 2: 6-10

Brothers and sisters: We speak a wisdom to those who are mature, not a wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away. Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written: What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him, this God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (cf. Matthew 11: 25)

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

* Gospel Matthew 5: 17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raqa,' will be answerable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool,' will be liable to fiery Gehenna. Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Settle with your opponent quickly while on the way to court. Otherwise your opponent will hand you over to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Amen, I say to you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny. "You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into Gehenna. "It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife must give her a bill of divorce. But I say to you, whoever divorces his wife - unless the marriage is unlawful - causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. "Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven, (At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Mission Mondays

Mission Mondays is back again as a collaborative effort in providing opportunities for service, fun, and worship for our teens (grades 7-12) this summer. We are looking for adults that love being with teenagers and are willing to share their faith with them, serving the community together this summer! Below is the information for this year.

All days will be at Ss. Cosmas and Damian.

- June 7 (5-8pm)- kickoff
- June 8- 11:30-8:30
- June 15- 11:30-8:30
- June 22- 11:30-8:30

We would love to have you join us for any of the 4 days and even part of the day would be great too! Responsibilities of adult volunteers:

- Help drive/transport teens to service locations
- Help lead group discussions
- Help set up games/dinners

Participate in games with teens to build relationships with them

If you have questions, contact Matt- matt@olg.cc. If you are ready to sign up, please scan the code to complete the volunteer registration. Thank you!

We can begin this process by directing the hurt we feel inside to God and talking to Him about this pain we are experiencing. When we are ready, the Lord asks us to reconcile. We are always called to forgive but reconciliation is not always possible to a full degree since it takes the willingness of both parties and sometimes one side is unwilling. Or in some cases, one of the parties might not be someone we can approach for various reasons. But generally speaking Jesus desires us to reconcile and to make that effort to continue the healing process.

This is how Jesus dealt with anger. He allowed Himself to feel it, express it, and then He went to die on the cross for sinners. At the end of the day, He directed His anger to the cross which was an act of love for His enemy. This is easier said than done!

Where do you experience anger in your life? How have you dealt with it? Are you on a road of healing or have directed it ways that are unhealthy? Have you attempted reconciliation?

BLESSINGS BAGS

This Lent the Ministry For Those in Need will again be sponsoring the Lenten Blessing Bag Project. A Blessing Bag is just a simple way to be a blessing to those who are in need. It is a gallon plastic bag that contains an assortment of small items that can have a huge positive impact on the daily life of someone in need this Lenten Season.

Our goal is to assemble a total of 375 bags that will benefit the Peter Maurin Center, Hope and Healing Center and the Louis Stokes VA Hospital.

The bags will begin being available after masses the weekend of February 28 – March 1. They will also be available in the narthex any time the church is open.

How it will work:

- » Take an empty bag which will contain a list of items to be purchased and placed into the bag. They are color coded for the organization.
- » Each organization has a specific list so please only purchase items listed.
- » Enclose the items in the gallon bag along with the completed list.
- » Return the completed bags by March 22. There will be boxes to collect the bags that are color coded to match the color of the list.
- » Any “extra” items may be placed in the regular Peter Maurin Collection bin.

During this Lenten Season remember that Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which Christ’s compassion looks upon the earth, yours are the feet by which He goes about doing good, yours the hands by which He blesses.

Thank You for being the Hands and Feet of Christ and showing that together we can make a difference for Those in Need.

The next Baptism preparation class will be held on Wednesday, February 25th at 7:00 p.m. If this is your first child or if you have not attended a class in the last five years, you will need to attend before the Baptism of your child. Please contact the Parish Office at 330-468-2194 for more information.

Please pray for the family of Josephine Gaski, (mother of Al), and who recently passed from this life. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
