www.olg.cc (E-mail addresses available on website.)

Hi everyone! As I mentioned last week at the end of Mass, I am truly grateful to all the volunteers for the Fish Fry! We have been getting some great turnouts and I know it's a lot of work for the volunteers so, thank you for your dedication to serving our parish in this way!

I would also like to inform you that Jackie Cackowski's last day working for us at OLG is Tuesday, March 17th. Jackie decided to take a new job and so we thank her for her many years of service and dedication to our parish and pray for the very best for her moving forward.

Last weekend, Matt and a team of volunteers worked hard to put on our family day retreat. This was a really good event with a turnout higher than was anticipated. We move forward as a parish as we continue to engage new people and help them in their walk of faith. The family retreat was a true success in this way where we were able to continue to build community with our young families and help them grow in their relationship with God.

We also had a similar success a few Mondays ago with the family Holy Hour Matt planned for. We had another great turnout and successful evening of teaching some of our young families how to pray before the Blessed Sacrament! Again, I am very grateful for these efforts that engage people who we do not regularly see and help them in their walk of faith. These are signs of good fruit and growth for our parish!

In our reading for this weekend from the book of First Samuel we have God seeking to choose the next king of Israel from Jesse's sons. Samuel is the prophet sent to anoint the next chosen king and keeps choosing the sons of Samuel based off of their appearance. Samuel keeps selecting one of Jesse's sons based off of their lofty stature and appearance to be a great king yet God chooses not one of them. God wants the unexpected one and gives this piercing line, "Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart (NAB, 1 Samuel 16:7)."

How often we judge by appearances too! We want our family photo to look just right so everyone can see how well put-together we are, right? But the reality is that nobody has it all together and no family is without heavy trials. We are often afraid to expose our weaknesses, struggles and brokenness. Lent is the opportunity to look with the eyes of God into our lives and to judge not by false appearances but allow the Lord to enter the reality of what it is going on in our hearts, minds and relationships. We should not be afraid of what does not appear perfect and bring our real self, our real situations, and real problems to Jesus. Jesus loves us in the mess and not in the false appearance that we may try to put on for ourselves or Everyone else in our life. It's okay to need Jesus this Lent – in fact that's the whole point of Lent is to recognize our real need for Him! Please ask yourself, "Am I looking only at appearances in myself and others or am I truly looking into the heart?" Do I give God access to what's really going on in my life or do I only give Him access to the appearances?

Fr. James

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading 1 Samuel 16: 1b, 6-7, 10-13a

The LORD said to Samuel: “Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen my king from among his sons.” As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice, Samuel looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is here before him.” But the LORD said to Samuel: “Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart.” In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any one of these.” Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Are these all the sons you have?” Jesse replied, “There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Send for him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here.” Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them. He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. The LORD said, “There—anooint him, for this is the one!” Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anoointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.

* Response Psalm 23: 1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6
Music: Francesca LaRosa

The Lord is my shep-herd; there is no-thing I shall want. The Lord is my shep-herd; there is no-thing I shall want.

1. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
 beside restful waters he leads me;
 he refreshes my soul.
2. He guides me in right paths for his name’s sake.
 Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil;
 for you are at my side
 with your rod and your staff that give me courage.
3. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
 you anooint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
4. Only goodness and kindness follow me
 all the days of my life;
 and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
 for years to come.

* 2nd Reading Ephesians 5: 8-14

Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.”

Verse (John 8: 12)

“I am the light of the world,” says the Lord;
 “whoever follows me will have the light of life.”

* Gospel John 9: 1-41

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” Jesus answered, “Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through im. We have to do the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam” —which means Sent—. So he went and washed, and came back able to see. His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, “Isn’t this the one who used to sit and beg?” Some said, “It is, “but others said, “No, he just looks like him.” He said, “I am.” So they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?” He replied, “The man called Jesus made clay and anoointed my eyes and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went there and washed and was able to see.” And they said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I don’t know.” They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see.” So some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a sinful man do such signs?” And there was a division among them. So they said to the blind man again, “What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?” He said, “He is a prophet.” Now the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and gained his sight until they summoned the parents of the one who had gained his sight. They asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How does he now see?” His parents answered and said, “We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. We do not know how he sees now, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him, he is of age; he can speak for himself.” His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone acknowledged him as the Christ, he would be expelled from the synagogue. For this reason his parents said, “He is of age; question him.” So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, “Give God the praise! We know that this man is a sinner.” He replied, “If he is a sinner, I do not know.

One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see.” So they said to him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?” He answered them, “I told you already and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?” They ridiculed him and said, “You are that man’s disciple; we are disciples of Moses! We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from.” The man answered and said to them, “This is what is so amazing, that you do not know where he is from, yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if one is devout and does his will, he listens to him. It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind. If this man were not from God, he would not be able to do anything.” They answered and said to him, “You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?” Then they threw him out. When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, Do you believe in the Son of Man?” He answered and said, “Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, the one speaking with you is he.” He said, “I do believe, Lord,” and he worshiped him. Then Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind.” Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this and said to him, “Surely we are not also blind, are we?” Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you are saying, ‘We see,’ so your sin remains.

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man,” all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A BIBLE STUDY GUIDE FOR CATHOLICS

FR. MITCH PACWA, S.J.

New book starts
 March 10th

In this Bible study, Fr. Mitch Pacwa guides us through Catholic teaching on salvation, as found in Scripture. With his characteristic wisdom, he tackles tough topics and questions, including grace and free will, repentance and faith, the role of the sacraments, and the necessity of good works.

Did you know?

MASS INTENTIONS...don't always have to be for the deceased! Besides having a Mass remembrance for a deceased loved one, Masses can be intended for the living. Birthdays and anniversaries are special days that can be remembered with a Mass intention. There is a suggested donation of $10. Please call the office or stop by to schedule Masses.

Thank you, Jackie!

Thank you for serving our parish community - you will be missed! Best wishes in your new role at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.

"Family is God's greatest gift, where love begins and never ends."

Last Saturday, OLG hosted its first-ever, Lenten family retreat day. 18 families gathered for a day of prayer, activities, and fellowship, allowing them to walk together in faith. Families with children ages 9 months to 12 years were engaged in family fun activities throughout the day. We made dog treats, planted seeds in a family pot, and prayed in different ways for each other and the world.

Thank you to the volunteers who helped make this day possible and allowing God's grace to flow to the families of Our Lady of Guadalupe!

Test your knowledge on a variety of topics as you guide your team to victory!

Sunday, March 22, 2026 at 6:30pm!

Be sure to invite your friends who can help you win the night!

LENTEN Speaker Series

March 18: Fr. James Kulway

March 26: Fr. Jeffrey Lindholm

6:30-7:30pm In the Church

During this season of Lent, we will explore what it means to live as missionary disciples—called to share the Gospel through our words, witness, and daily lives. Each session will offer inspiration, practical insights, and time for reflection as we grow together in faith and purpose.

Come be renewed, encouraged, and equipped to embrace Christ's call to mission.

Women's Bible Study
 Come be encouraged, uplifted, and inspired as we grow in faith together in a welcoming community of women.
