From the Desk of Fr. Jeffrey

I am not sure about you, but it feels like the season of Lent has flown by – I could have promised you that just yesterday was Ash Wednesday! I hope that you have been having a fruitful Lent that has seen your relationship with the Lord deepen! As we approach Holy Week, I pray that the Lord draws you into a closer relationship with Him.

Last weekend, I was on retreat with a Life Teen group. Fittingly, the theme was “Rise Up,” taken from this weekend’s Gospel where Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. For me, it was inspiring to see our teens grow closer to our Lord in prayer, small group time, Adoration, and, of course, retreat shenanigans (such as being pied in the face on Pi Day!). In a very real way, the Lord invited our teens to “come out” from the tombs of sin, division, trials, sufferings, and complacency. In this way, Jesus invited them into an encounter with Him over the weekend.

At the end of any retreat, one of my favorite questions to ask is, “How did God speak to you?” Hearing some of the teen’s responses blew me away. From, “I encountered Jesus for the first time” to “I received an image in prayer ministry that felt like God was speaking directly to me,” I am reminded that God is still working, moving, and breathing new life into our young Church. God be praised!

Of course, the theme “Rise Up” is not just for young people; it is for everyone! As Jesus commands the tomb, “Lazarus, come out!” (John 11:43, NABRE), He commands us the very same thing. Where is Jesus inviting you to rise out of the grave? Maybe it is a particular sin and He is inviting you to go to Confession to receive the mercy of God. Or maybe it is to rouse us from complacency to go deeper into relationship with Him. Or maybe it is to breathe new life to a downtrodden spirit. Whatever it might be, God calls us to life, and life to the full.

The miracle of raising Lazarus from the dead is so important because it climatically focuses Jesus’ ministry towards Jerusalem one last time. In John’s Gospel, this is Jesus’ last miracle before he undergoes His Passion. For Jesus and His disciples, this is the final straw that leads to plotting the arrest and death of Jesus. That is, we are rapidly approaching Holy Week, the apex of the liturgical year where we celebrate the mystery of our salvation.

Things are going to turn very quickly for Jesus – from acclaim to betrayal and death. Here, we are called to hold fast to the Cross with the hope of Resurrection. As Jesus overcame death – and the stench of four days in the tomb – with Lazarus, so too will the Father raise Him from the dead after three days so that we might have eternal life. Let us enter into this time of immediate preparation for Holy Week by keeping watch with our Lord. Perhaps it can be by setting aside an extra five minutes for prayer each day. Or it can be going to Adoration for a period of time each week. Or it can be by interceding for those who have asked for our prayers.

A great way to keep watch with the Lord is to join us for our Holy Week liturgies beginning with Palm Sunday and concluding with Easter Sunday. On Palm Sunday, we commemorate the Lord’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Beginning with Thursday, the Church begins the Triduum, which is actually one liturgy, beginning with Holy Thursday and concluding with the Easter Vigil.

I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (All strike their breast.) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore, I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading Ezekiel 37: 12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 130: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6ab and 7a, 7b-8
 Music: Francesca LaRosa

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;
 LORD, hear my voice.
 Let your ears be attentive to my voice in supplication.
2. If you, O LORD, mark iniquities, LORD, who can stand?
 But with you is forgiveness, that you may be revered.
3. I trust in the LORD; my soul trusts in his word.
 More than sentinels wait for the dawn,
 let Israel wait for the LORD.
4. For with the LORD is kindness and with him is plenteous redemption;
 and he will redeem Israel from all their iniquities.

* 2nd Reading Romans 8: 8-11

Brothers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

Verse (John 11: 25a, 26)

“I am the resurrection and the life,” says the Lord;
 “whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will never die.”

* Gospel John 11: 1-45

Now a man was ill, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who had anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and dried his feet with her hair; it was her brother Lazarus who was ill. So the sisters sent word to him saying, “Master, the one you love is ill.” When Jesus heard this he said, “This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” Now

Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.” The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there?” Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours in a day? If one walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.” He said this, and then told them, “Our friend Lazarus is asleep, but I am going to awaken him.” So the disciples said to him, “Master, if he is asleep, he will be saved.” But Jesus was talking about his death, while they thought that he meant ordinary sleep. So then Jesus said to them clearly, “Lazarus has died. And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him.” So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go to die with him.” When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, only about two miles away. And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.” Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him, “I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.” When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, “The teacher is here and is asking for you.” As soon as she heard this, she rose quickly and went to him. For Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still where Martha had met him. So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her, presuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Sir, come and see.” And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him.” But some of them said, “Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

Application packets are available at your parish office. Completed applications must be returned by March 26, 2026. Additional instructions are included in the packet. If you have any questions, please call or e-mail Michael Kearney. Phone 216.401.9368 or e-mail mgksmk886@gmail.com.

On Holy Thursday, we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist and the priesthood, as well as Jesus' servant leadership as we commemorate the Last Supper. In Good Friday, we celebrate the Cross, the means by which love conquered death and sin. After Good Friday, we wait and keep watch in hope until the Easter Vigil, where the Resurrection transforms everything and gives us the good news that death is not the end of the story. At the Easter Vigil, we Baptize, confirm, and celebrate Eucharist with our OCIA elect and candidates to recognize that the Lord is continuing to breathe new life into the Church. And we continue that celebration on Easter Sunday!

Please consider joining us for any or all of our Holy Week liturgies.
 Palm Sunday: Normal Mass schedule.
 Holy Thursday: 7 PM in the Church, with Adoration until Midnight.
 Good Friday: 12 PM Stations; 3 PM liturgy in the Church.
 Easter Vigil: 8:45 PM in the Church.
 Easter Sunday: 8:30 AM in the Church; 10:30 AM in the Church.
 God Bless,

Father Jeffrey Lindholm

SAVED

A BIBLE STUDY GUIDE FOR CATHOLICS
 FR. MITCH PACWA, S.J.

New book starts
 March 10th

In this Bible study, Fr. Mitch Pacwa guides us through Catholic teaching on salvation, as found in Scripture. With his characteristic wisdom, he tackles tough topics and questions, including grace and free will, repentance and faith, the role of the sacraments, and the necessity of good works.

TUESDAYS 6:30PM ROSE ROOM

LENTEN

Speaker Series

March 18: Fr. James Kulway
March 26: Fr. Jeffrey Lindholm
 6:30-7:30pm In the Church

During this season of Lent, we will explore what it means to live as missionary disciples—called to share the Gospel through our words, witness, and daily lives. Each session will offer inspiration, practical insights, and time for reflection as we grow together in faith and purpose.

Come be renewed, encouraged, and equipped to embrace Christ's call to mission.

ALTARED Youth Ministry Events

All students in grades 7-12 are welcome and encouraged to attend any youth ministry events!

March 22 (6:30pm-8pm) ALTARED trivia night

See how you fare against others on this fun trivia night as we answer questions in a variety of categories. Who will be the winner?

March 25 (1pm-3pm) Fill Easter Eggs

Help fill 2,500 easter eggs with candy for the Easter egg delivery. Meet in the Castilian Room.

March 27 (NOON-1:30pm) Mass/Stations of the Cross

Let us gather for worship at Mass in the church. Then we will stay to pray the Stations of the Cross at 12:30. A Lenten lunch will be served to finish our time together.

April 4 (10pm-12am) Easter Egg Delivery

This is for teen drivers or families where parents drive to deliver eggs to families of OLG. Be a “bunny” to hide eggs on the lawns of parishioners for children to wake up to on Easter morning. Contact Matt to volunteer for this opportunity.

Divine Mercy Sunday Holy Hour

All are invited to join us for our annual Divine Mercy Holy Hour and Chaplet on Sunday, April 12 at 3:00 PM. This Holy Hour will include Scripture, Adoration, Benediction, periods of silent/personal reflection, and the sung version of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Confession time will also be available with both Fr. James and Fr. Pat. (The Divine Mercy Chaplet is traditionally prayed during the 3:00 PM hour since it is the period of time that Jesus gave His life for us on Good Friday.)

OLG Easter Egg Delivery

Our egg delivery is back again this year! The night before Easter, the OLG Easter bunnies will spread candy-filled eggs over your front lawns and your children will wake to a surprise in their yard, with a sign stating, “He is Risen.” Deliveries will take place on April 4 for our families of OLG with children 12 and under. Just as in the past, this is free for our families, but donations will be accepted.

To register for our Easter Egg delivery, please visit olg.cc and submit the Google form. Please sign up by April 1st. Our bunnies will deliver to Macedonia, Northfield, Sagamore Hills, and Twinsburg.

Also, if anyone in the parish would like to help contribute to this event, I will be collecting bags of individually wrapped candy to fill the eggs with. It is preferred that the candy can fit in the small plastic Easter eggs. You can leave the candy in the main office or bring them down to the PSR office any time. As always, your generosity to the youth and the support of our families here at Our Lady of Guadalupe is greatly appreciated.

Matt Griffith- Faith Formation Director

Please pray for the family of Gregory Conkey, (brother of James), and who recently passed from this life. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
