FROM THE PASTOR

I want to begin by thanking everyone for your prayers over the past couple of weeks! Celebrating my brother's wedding was one of the most amazing experiences of my priesthood – please continue to hold Matthew and Grace in your prayers!

I also returned from my annual retreat this past weekend. It was my first retreat since ordination, and I am so grateful to God for giving me the gift of the priesthood and for sending me here. Part of my prayer was thanking God for what a wonderful parish OLG has been in welcoming me and allowing me to serve as one of their priests. So, from the bottom of my heart, thank you.

It feels like Jesus has been laying down the hammer over the past few weekends at Mass. We have heard Him speak on the importance of (healthy) conflict, the poison of anger, and the requirement to forgive. This weekend is no different! Jesus speaks of the necessity of conversion, hearing His voice, and following through on our word.

Jesus tells a familiar parable: "A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir,' but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They [the chief priests and elders] answered, "The first" (Mt. 21:28-31a, NABRE).

Sometimes, Jesus' parables can be confusing or unclear; this one, however, is pretty clear-cut. When God asks us to do something, we ought to do it ("Thy will be done"). However, if we ignore, are misled, or simply do not cooperate with God's will, we always have the opportunity to turn back and to follow God's will in our daily life. That is why daily prayer and the reception of the Sacraments are so important! By nourishing our hearts with speaking/listening to God, as well as receiving the Sacraments, we open our hearts to discern and to follow the will of God in our daily lives. When we stray from prayer and the Sacraments, we tend to fall into the trap of "my will be done" instead of "Thy will be done."

But thank goodness, God is always patient and inviting! He is patient like the father in the parable. He always wants us to turn back and to follow His will. Hence, we pray with the Psalmist today, "Remember your mercies, O Lord" (Ps. 25, NABRE). The prayer of the Psalmist can be our prayer as well! When we go into the vineyard of our daily life, we can (and should) pray that God remember His mercies! Our daily life is a process of ongoing conversion where we ask God to be merciful, and we pray for the grace to follow God's will.

But what about the son who said that he would go to work but didn't? Jesus does not spare words or sentiment: He says that this son did not do his father's will and that they had changed their minds (and therefore hearts) away from the father's desire. What might this teach us? For starters, it shows us that our words and promises matter. When we give someone our word, we try to do everything we can to follow through on it. Why should our word and promises to God be any different? Of course, when we fail to follow through, we run to the arms of a gentle and merciful God; however, we still ought to follow through on our prayer, "Thy will be done"!

God wants us to be a part of His vineyard in our daily lives. He wants us to work with Him, side-by-side. As Jesus asks the chief priests and the elders, so, too, He asks us: will you go to work in My vineyard today? God is the vinedresser; we are the branches. May we remain faithful to God's love as we work as co-workers with Him in the vineyard.

Fr. Jeffrey

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading Ezekiel 18: 25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 25: 4-5, 6-7, 8-9 Music: Marty Haugen

1. O LORD, make me know your ways.
Teach me your paths.
Guide me in your truth and teach me;
for you are the God of my salvation.
You are the God of my salvation.

2. Remember your compassion, O LORD,
and your merciful love, for they are from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth,
nor my transgressions.
In your merciful love remember me,
because of your goodness, your goodness, O LORD.

3. Good and upright is the LORD;
he shows the way, he shows the way to sinners.
He guides the humble in right judgment;
to the humble he teaches his way.

* 2nd Reading Philippians 2: 1-11

Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (John 10: 27)

"My sheep hear my voice," says the Lord;
"I know them, and they follow me."

* Gospel Matthew 21: 28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?' They answered, 'The first.' Jesus said to them, 'Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Verse text: Psalm 23, The Grail

1. Lord, you are my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where you give me repose.
Near restful waters you lead me,
to revive my drooping spirit.

2. You guide me along the right path;
you are true to your name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.

You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort.

3. You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.

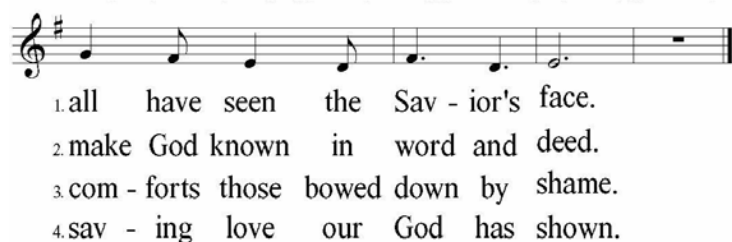

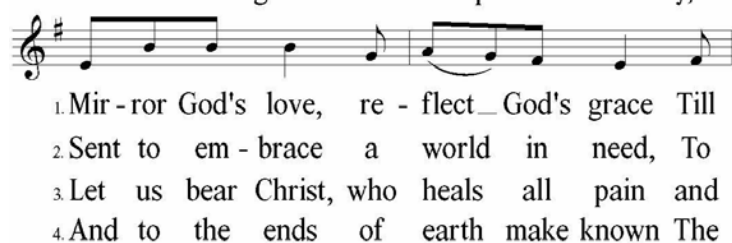

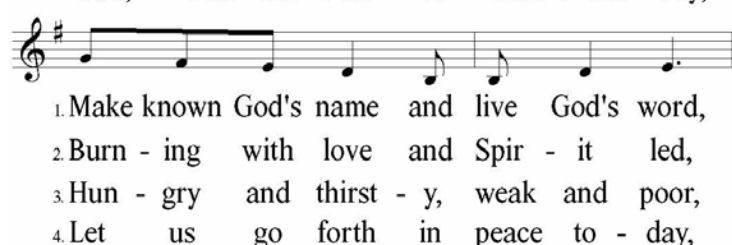

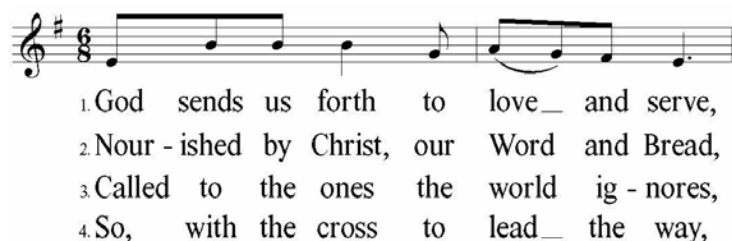

In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever.

5. To the Father and the Son give glory,
give glory to the Spirit,
to God who is, who was, and who will be forever and ever.

JOH LIC #15527

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

May the sacred heart of Jesus be adored, gloried, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred heart of Jesus, pray for us.

St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us.

St. Jude, helper of the hopeless, pray for us.

(Say 9 times a day, for 9 days. Must promise publish)
