FROM THE PASTOR

Hi everyone!

As we look to our readings for this weekend, both the first reading from Isaiah and the Gospel from Matthew 22 remind us that we are made for God's banquet and great feast! God has this great banquet prepared for us and this is where He desires to lead us especially in eternity! Isaiah says, "On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines." And Jesus tells us in Matthew's Gospel, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son... "Behold. I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."

We celebrate any major event in life like a graduation, wedding, ordination, retirement, etc. with some sort of feast and choice foods and drinks. As human beings, this is how we celebrate life, and God confirms this in these readings. He even goes so far as to say that this is what His Kingdom is like. However, God's banquet will far surpass any banquet we can offer. We have to hold this reality in faith since we do not know exactly what this will be like, nor do we always experience it on earth.

The ultimate foretaste of God's banquet is the Holy Mass where we encounter God's rich food and wine in the consecrated host and wine that become the Body and Blood of Jesus. Feasting on the Eucharist is the richest food we can receive for our souls and is a foretaste of His eternal banquet. This, all the more, highlights the importance of renovating our worship space since it is where we come to God's banquet here on earth!

As we hear in the following verses of the Gospel passage, "Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, and another to his business." God has this amazing banquet prepared and people turned down His invitation because they were busy with other things. Do we do this in our lives?

The world has a way of constantly throwing more and more at us. We are constantly feeling the need to take on the next sport, or activity. Are we letting these activities get in the way of us responding to God's banquet? Are we putting these things before Holy Mass and before our relationship with Him? Once we come to understand how incredible God's banquet is, we would never dream of putting another task before Him. May we come to know the banquet and feast we were truly made for!

Fr. James

SUPPORT OUR TEENS

PHILADELPHIA PILGRIMAGE FUNDRAISER!

Our high school youth ministry is heading on a spiritual pilgrimage to Philadelphia from November 20–23, 2026! Grounded in our theme, "Ordinary People. Extraordinary Faith," our teens will explore what holiness, vocation, and following Christ look like in their own lives. They will pray at the Shrines of St. Katharine Drexel, St. John Neumann, and Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, while also exploring historic sites like Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell.

To help make this transformative trip possible and keep costs affordable for families, we are launching an Envelope Fundraiser available at Masses on October 10-11.

How it works:

- Find the display of numbered envelopes in the narthex.
- Choose an envelope with a dollar amount you feel called to contribute (e.g., Envelope #25 = a $25 donation, Envelope #50 = a $50 donation).
- Place your donation inside, seal it, and return it to the parish office or the offertory collection by November 1.

Every dollar directly offsets travel, lodging, and registration costs for our students. More than anything, we ask for your prayers for our teens as they prepare their hearts for this journey. Thank you for your incredible generosity and for investing in the future of our Church!

MINISTRY FOR THOSE IN NEED WINTER WARMTH COLLECTION

On the weekend of October 24-25, we will be collecting new and like new blankets, as well as new hats & gloves that will be distributed to those in need in our community & through other organizations to the homeless & needy. You can also donate using the special Winter Warmth offertory envelope in your packet or make a cash contribution in person at Church. Your generous donations make it possible to assist with heating bills & other needs that help keep people warm this winter. Thank You for making a difference!

PRAYERS FOR SICK & BEREAVED

Let us lovingly remember in prayer those who are ill, homebound, in care facilities, or grieving the loss of a loved one. May God's healing presence and comforting grace surround them, and may our prayers bring them strength and hope.

The full OLG Prayer List is available on the podium to the left of the altar and at olg.cc. Names added to the Prayers for the Sick list will remain on the list for 12 weeks. To add a loved one or request that a name stay on the list, please contact the parish office or email secretary@olg.cc.

Please pray for Tim Stewart & Barry Stoll.

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading

Isaiah 25: 6-10a

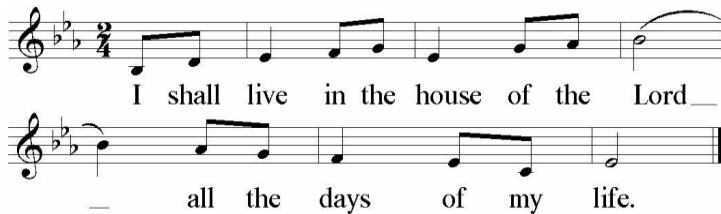

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines. On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples, the web that is woven over all nations; he will destroy death forever. The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from every face; the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken. On that day it will be said: "Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! This is the LORD for whom we looked; let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!"

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response

Psalms 23: 1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

Music Setting: Michel Guimont

1. The LORD is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me; he revives my soul.
2. He guides me along the right path, for the sake of his name. Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death, no evil would I fear, for you are with me. Your crook and your staff will give me comfort.
3. You have prepared a table before me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.
4. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. In the LORD's own house shall I dwell for length of days unending.

* 2nd Reading

Philippians 4: 12-14, 19-20

Brothers and sisters: I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress. My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

enlighten the eyes of our hearts,
so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

* Gospel

Matthew 22: 1-14

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

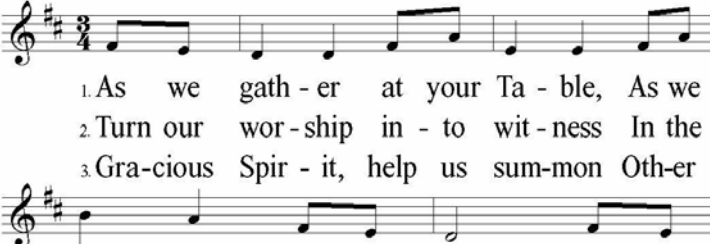

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
