FROM THE PASTOR

Hi everyone! This Sunday the Diocese of Cleveland celebrates Priesthood Sunday. As we reflect on Priesthood Sunday and vocations in general, it is my goal that every parishioner is asking God the question, "where are you calling me to serve you?" Jesus tells us in the Gospel this weekend that the greatest commandment in the Gospel is to "love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself (NAB, Matthew 22:35-40)." Loving God with our whole self (as Jesus states) is more than words but it includes our actions and our whole direction in life. To love God is to live for God entirely and to allow His grace to have a real effect in our hearts and in transforming our lives and actions. To love God is to be open to God's will, to trust God with our whole life, and to follow Him to the best of our ability. It is truly an honor and privilege to serve the God of the universe and to actually love Him!

We want our youth to be asking God this question in their life as they prepare for their future. As a Church our goal is not to push them into any vocation but to help them to be open to God and asking Him where He is leading them. We should not assume we fully know what path they should go in their life. Certainly, as parents, guardians, grandparents or friends we have a good understanding of our youth's gifts and abilities and perhaps some idea of what path in life would suite them well. But often it is easy for us to think we know exactly what path they should take like getting married and becoming a doctor or they must become a priest or religious sister or brother. These of course are great things! But we should be looking to God for His will in their life and doing our best to encourage them to pray about their future and where God is calling them. As we pray about our calling and the calling of our youth then would should begin to reflect on what interests us in life and what desire we have in our heart. This will all be a part of discerning the calling God has for us and our youth. There is a lot more to say about discerning God's call in one's life which would be more fitting for one-on-one conversations or another article devoted to that but for the purpose of this article I want to make sure we are at least open and asking God the question, "where are you calling me to serve you" and "where are you calling my children to serve you in their future?"

My goal is that our youth follow Jesus and I know He will lead them in the right path. God, as our Creator, knows us through and through and how to bring all that we are to its fullest capacity. When I was first thinking of my future as a teen, I wanted to be a physical therapist, architect, engineer or math teacher and wanted to get married. None of these happened and, in the moment, it did not make sense. I had a real interest in all of those areas but found that none of them were where God wanted me to focus my life. But now looking back on my life it is very clear to me that God knew more about me then I did! Only in Him and in serving Him could I find true joy, happiness and fulfilment. When I share this with adults, some of them share with me in response that they have still not found that in their life even though they are older in life. I believe, if we truly ask the Lord and pursue Him, we will eventually discover the path He is leading us on and it will make sense! Please read Psalm 139 to pray with this reality in your life about God knowing us to the core of our being more than we know ourselves!

I ask this Priesthood Sunday that we continue to pray for all of our Shepherds. I need your prayers and so does Fr. Jeffrey and Fr. Pat. Please pray for our Bishop and our seminarians. Please pray for those God is calling to the priesthood to have the awareness and courage to say "yes" to Him! If you know of a young man you think might make a good priest, then do not be afraid to share that with him.

Fr. James

Hello, my name is Garrett Ditsch and I am a parishioner of Our Lady of Guadalupe & a Junior at Nordonia High School.

I am proud to serve on the Diocese of Cleveland's Youth Ministry Advisory Council. I am tasked with serving the Diocese of Cleveland and understanding the needs of our young people. Part of our leadership formation requires us to launch a hands-on apostolate project. My project is called The Saintly Spotlight Society, and it aims to help Catholics discover the lives of lesser-known Saints and how to apply their Faith in your everyday life!

A way that you can support me in this project is to be a part of the Saintly Spotlight Society Prayer Group and attend the monthly meetings. Your presence would be greatly appreciated in my efforts to grow in my own faith and leadership. And you may learn more about saints who lived extraordinary lives.

For more information contact me at garrettditsch@gmail.com with any questions. Thank you for your support!

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading Exodus 22: 20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 18: 2-3a, 3bc-4, 47, 51ab

Music Setting: Tony Alonso

1. I love you, LORD, my strength:
O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my savior.

2. My God, my rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my saving strength, my stronghold.
I cry out, "Praised be the LORD!"
and see, I am saved from my foes.

3. The LORD lives, and blest by my Rock!
May the God of my salvation be exalted.
The LORD gives great victories to his king,
and shows merciful love for his anointed.

* 2nd Reading 1 Thessalonians 1: 5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Gospel Acclamation and Verse Richard Proulx

Tune: © 1975, GIA Publications, Inc. All rights reserved. Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-727738.

Verse (John 14: 23)

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

* Gospel Matthew 22: 34-30

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
