FROM THE PASTOR

Hi everyone!

Thank you for your prayer and support last weekend for Priesthood Sunday! Myself, Fr. Pat and Fr. Jeffrey are blessed to be assigned to shepherd this parish!

This weekend, the Church celebrates All Saints Day. This Solemnity is always celebrated November 1st, and this year it happens to fall on a Sunday.

As we enter into November, we are coming to the final few weeks of the Church year (Liturgical year), and then Advent begins the new Church year, which is Sunday, November 29th. In these final weeks, we are always given a focus on the end times and are called to remember the reality of death. This is not meant to depress us or make us focus on negative things, but rather to embrace the reality that life on earth is limited and life with God is eternal. We are called to prepare ourselves for our death and the end times by remaining close to Jesus and being watchful for Him in our daily lives. When we allow Christ to be at the center of our lives, then even death has no power over us and we have nothing to fear.

This month of focusing our lives in this way, the Church kicks off by looking to the Saints! St. Paul told us last week in his letter to the Corinthians, "Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ (NAB, 1 Corinthians 11:1)." We are all meant to live holy lives that are Christ-like. We are truly meant to allow God's grace to take root in our hearts and transform us to be "other Christs" in the world. As a Church, we look to Jesus Himself for this model but also to the holy ones who model this life well in our day. It might sound sort of prideful on Paul's part, but Paul is humbly acknowledging that Jesus has transformed his life and recognizes God's grace actively at work through him, which he mentions many times in his letters. For example, St. Paul says, "It is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me." And "I have been crucified with Christ." In other words, we can look to Jesus at work in the life of Paul as an example of an authentic Christian life. Jesus is alive in Heaven but also in His members on earth!

The Saints are holy people who have allowed Jesus to work profoundly in their lives. The Church holds up these lives as examples of authentic Christian living that we can imitate, like St. Paul. Every one of us is called to be a Saint, which begins at our Baptism when we are made holy by receiving the Holy Spirit, and we want to allow those graces to be actively at work our whole lives by living our faith each day. The Saints are people who did this well and lived authentically for God, and we can look to their lives as examples of this.

The Saints (all of those in Heaven) and, in particular, the canonized Saints are people the Church has set apart for us to imitate. We are called to discover our identity in Christ throughout our lives and by looking to the lives of the Saints. We have these "role models" to give us a visible image and example of what a holy life looks like. It is a good practice to read books on the Saints – both about their lives and their own writings. Which Saints have you read about, and do you enjoy reading?

This year we are focusing our attention on St. Francis, which would be a good first Saint to learn more about. I have listened to some wonderful podcasts and YouTube videos on St. Francis that have helped me understand more about this Saint's life, struggles, and how he followed Jesus in the midst of his daily life.

St. Carlos Acutis and Pier Giorgio Frassati are recently canonized and are perfect for young people to read about and imitate. Fulton Sheen was just declared "blessed" and, on his way to being a canonized Saint – perhaps you could listen to his sermons or read up on his life. There are countless amazing Saints set aside for us to "imitate" and learn about, of all different backgrounds and ages. We have Saints who died young and old, male and female, priest, religious, married and single. Please spend some time this November diving into the lives of the Saints and imitating them as they imitate Christ.

Fr. James

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading — Revelation 7: 2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel. After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed: "Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen." Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows." He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response Psalm 24: 1bc-2, 3-4ab, 5-6

Music Setting: Tony Alonso

1. The LORD's is the earth and its fullness,
the world, and those who dwell in it.
It is he who set it on the seas;
the rivers he made it firm.

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the LORD?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The clean of hands and pure of heart,
whose soul is not set on vain things.

3. Blessings from the LORD he shall receive,
and right reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the people who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

* 2nd Reading 1 John 3: 1-3

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

The word of the Lord. ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse (Matthew 5: 1-12a)

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
And I will give you rest," says the Lord.

* Gospel Matthew 5: 1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word of God

* Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE
May the sacred heart of Jesus be adored, gloried, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred heart of Jesus, pray for us.
St Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us.
St Jude, helper of the hopeless, pray for us.
(Say 9 times a day, for 9 days. Must promise publish)
